

SEPTEMBER 2020

DISASTER
RESPONSE CRISIS
COUNSELOR
CERTIFICATION
VIRTUAL SCHEDULE

Disaster & Terrorism Branch

NJ DHS Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services

For more information on exact requirements to be certified and to start an online application please visit: <https://njdrcc.org/index.php>

Please see the 4 required initial courses below. The Introductory and Key Concepts in Psychological First Aid courses have been broken up into two 3-hour segments. You must take BOTH to receive credit and complete the requirements.

To register click directly on the training titles in blue. We will offer the courses monthly

September 15th at 9:00 AM (3 Hours)

[Introduction to Disaster and Trauma
Counseling: Basic Training for Disaster
Response Crisis Counselors \(PART I of II\)](#)

September 16th at 9:00 AM (3 Hours)

[Introduction to Disaster and Trauma
Counseling: Basic Training for Disaster
Response Crisis Counselors \(PART II of II\)](#)

September 29th at 9:00 AM (3 Hours)

Ethical Issues in Crisis Response

September 24th at 9:00 AM (3 Hours)

[Key Concepts in Psychological First Aid
\(PART I of II\)](#)

September 25th at 9:00AM (3 Hours)

[Key Concepts in Psychological First Aid
\(PART II of II\)](#)

September 30th at 9:00 AM (3 Hours)

Cross Cultural Issues in Disaster Response

For any questions on the certification process please contact Tegan.Perrotta@mhanj.org

For questions on registration please contact Annie.Westerman@dhs.nj.gov

To satisfy the requirement of Incident Command System (ICS100) please complete the online exam HERE (Please save a copy of the certificate on your computer) <https://emilms.fema.gov/IS0100c/curriculum/1.html>

To satisfy the requirement of National Incident Management System (NIMS700) please complete the online exam HERE (Please save a copy of the certificate on your computer) <https://emilms.fema.gov/IS0700b/curriculum/1.html>