Step-by-Step Guide for Planning a Round Trip

Planning Outgoing Trip

1. Googlemaps - enter start and end addresses, select desired arrival time, select public transportation to see available route options
2. Choose preferred option (I prefer Somerset County over NJ Transit when possible because of the varied fares on NJ Transit)
3. Always review the schedule for your selected route and verify what time to be waiting for the bus at your stop (I have paper route schedules so that I can carry them with me on the trip for reference). Googlemaps times may not be current!!
4. Flag down your bus, let driver know your destination upon boarding and pay your fare

Planning Return Trip

1. Determine your return time window
2. Googlemaps - reverse start and end addresses, select desired departure times within window, select public transportation to see available route options
3. Note the route stop time and location for each possible return option, as this information will be important to navigate to the right location at the right time IN REAL TIME
4. When ready to return, select return option that best fits your current time and refer to paper schedule to verify time and location
5. Navigate to the pick-up location for that return option
Flag down your bus, let driver know your destination upon boarding and pay your fare
