

Office of Volunteer Services

Are you a retired volunteer? What's the problem? Are you helping others? Volunteer!

The HANDYMAN PROGRAM
"A Hand's Worth"
A Senior Corps Program

Types of Jobs Available:

- Water Line Installation
- Water Pumping Station
- Watering Lawns
- Tree Trimming
- Water Treatment Work
- Small Business Jobs
- Landscaping

Local - Monroe, Louisiana 70502
Phone: 504-388-1111
Email: Senior Corps, Department of Volunteer Services, 1000 North Central Expressway, Suite 1000

The HANDYMAN PROGRAM
"A Hand's Worth"
A Senior Corps Program

Local - Monroe, Louisiana 70502
Phone: 504-388-1111
Email: Senior Corps, Department of Volunteer Services, 1000 North Central Expressway, Suite 1000

OFFICE OF VOLUNTEER SERVICES
Serving the Greater Community & the People

How much time is required?
Volunteer hours are assigned according to the individual's skills and preferences.

Who can volunteer?
There are three ways to volunteer:

- Volunteer on your own
- Volunteer as part of a group
- Volunteer as a team

The best way to find out more is to call:
(908) 704-6322

Examples of programs administered by the Office of Volunteer Services:

- The Handman Program
- Art Council
- The Income Tax Counseling Program
- AARP
- Tutoring Program
- Senior Care Programs

Volunteers needed for our annual fall clean-up program

Each year individuals and groups come together to make homes for elderly and disabled homeowners around the county who have no other means of a good work site. This is a great opportunity to meet new people, make new friends and help a good cause.

(908) 704-6322

AARP Tax-Aide
Free Tax Help

Volunteer to help those in need get their taxes done for free.

AmeriCorps Senior RSV

RSVP

Tutoring Program

AARP Income Tax Counseling Program

AARP Tax-Aide
Free Tax Help